

Ills in Education Sector has Resulted in Economic Crisis in Pakistan

1 Introduction

2 Throwing shed on Education Sector of Pakistan

3 Ills in Education Sector leads Pakistan towards Economic Crisis:

3a) Outdated syllabus makes the youth unaware of financial and economic circumstance of Pakistan

3b) No implementation of article 25-A burdenize the growing population on economy rather resource

3c) Lack of digitalization in education sector increase the education expenditure

- 3d) Limited focus on vocational training and technical education leads the capital flight of brain drain
- 3e) Lack of quality education produces unskilled labour that contribute in the rise of unemployment rate
- 3f) Inaccessibility of women education hinders the workforce diversity
- 3g) Traditional practices in education sector creates barriers for Pakistan to compete with the world
- 3h) Low literacy rate increases poverty and wealth inequality
- 3i) Limited seats in higher education locked the opportunities for youth to attain formal education to contribute in economic growth

4 Remedies for the Betterment of Education Sector to Fetch Maximum Benefits for Economy:

4a) Implement the digitalization model to decrease educational expenditure and bring efficiency and effectiveness in education sector

4b) Update the course outline to make the youth aware of economic conditions of Pakistan

4c) Focus on skill-based learnings, vocational and technical trainings to produce skilled labour

4d) Active governance is needed to implement the educational policies and to increase the number of enrollment

5 Conclusion