

Comprehension

CSS - 2017

Q1. What has been lamented in the text?

A The author lamented that the beauty lies in every aspect of life, but we humans isolated the beauty only the artists. Although, it is the need of every human being.

Q2. What is the difference between ordinary man and an artist?

A The ordinary man live a simple life without considering the beauty. In the contrast, an artist prioritized beauty by shaping the things in a good manner. An artist can shape the inner imaginations too.

Q3 How can we make our lives beautiful and charming?

A We can make our lives beautiful and charming by adding positivity and aesthetic practices. Beauty lies in our inner mind and it can attract every individual. The artist who is aware of beauty can shape spectacular things through his/her art. Similarly, we can also shape our lives beautiful and charming by adding those practices.

Q4 What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?

A When the writer says "Beauty is not an ornament to life", he actually refers that beauty is essential for every individual. It is not something we can remove or add in our lives.

Q5 Do art and beauty affect our practical life and morals?

A- The art and beauty can affect our practical life and morals.

The text suggests that when one values beauty and aesthetic things, it can influence one's actions and decisions. However, if we only ignore these terms, it can create a sort of dissatisfaction spiritually.