

Protection of human rights is utopian concept in the current arena.

Outline

Introduction:

Protection of human rights is utopian concept in the current arena:

- i) Failure of international institutions in addressing humanitarian crisis at large scale.
- ii) Suppression of freedom of expression in various states.
- iii) Hypocritical nature of powerful state against human rights violation in weaker states.
- iv) Allocation of insufficient resources for the protection and promotion of human rights.
- v) Global capitalism prioritizing profit over ethical labor practices.

vi) The increased use of surveillance and digital technology are eroding the right to privacy.

vii) The global refugee crisis highlighting the failure of international community to protect the rights ~~and~~ dignity of displaced persons.

viii) No social acceptance and protection of rights to the LGBTQ+.

ix) Inhumane practices conducted by states on the basis of racism, religion, and culture.

x) Widespread human rights abuses despite the existence of human rights instruments.

xi) Prioritizing national interests at the cost of human interests by the states.

xii) Anti-immigrants policies conducted by states due to the increased feelings of nationalism.

Day: _____

Date: _____

xiii) Existence of systematic inequality for the women in various fields in patriarchal societies.

Conclusion: