gods and their communication methods

Human beings realised tiny nature of their existence as compared to universe. That made people believe in superior power and the creator of their own destinies. On that moments human felt the need of connection with gods.

Moreover, tried to find the ways which please gods.

In this regards soothsayers and Oracles played mediator's role and decoded the sign message from the gods. In addition, Oracles were designated proper ^{own} places along with responsibility towards their respective gods. Various methods were employed to understand gods command wrapped in omens. Sometimes, gods send prophets as their descendent and talked directly to them.

Prophets then used to deliver gods message to the people.
