

Title Nizar Hassan Documentaries represent
Palestinian Struggles

Nizar Hassan, a renowned Palestinian filmmaker, born in 1960 at Mashhad. After graduating in anthropology at Haifa University, he joined TV then he turned to Cinema in 1990. Four years later, he produced Independence which portray the false claim of an independence by Israel over Palestinian land. His recent documentary "My Grandfather's Path", which is masterfully crafted for the struggle for Palestinian ^{land} against illegal annexation of Israel provides a ~~pers~~ perspective on their rights. The short version of this movie has been broadcasted by on Al-Jazeera Arabic in three parts. However, It is necessary to watch the movie completely to appreciate the struggles of Palestinian.

Q.3

Ans No-1; The doctrine of power set by neo-imperial, USA denies space to counselling because when it feels ~~that~~ its security and national interest ~~are~~ at risk, USA would do pre-emptive strike. Therefore, USA ~~para~~ importance is only for its national interest over international community.

Ans No-2

The essence of moral equivalence is that when two or more parties are equally considered as what is ~~par~~ right or wrong. Whereas war has no moral justification because all the parties are ^{held} equally responsible for the consequences.

Ans No. 03, Countries occupied and under the tutelage of hyperpower have no peace due to lack of effective government, insurgence, casualties of innocent people, and fully dependence of hyperpower which only focus on own interests rather than occupied country.

Ans No. 4 Indeed, Europe and hyperpower USA are cross purposes over the concept of war. Europe particularly France and Germany opposed the US invasion in Iraq. However, US continued its expansion in Iraq alone without support of allied governments.

Ans No. 5 The ~~Too~~ Tony Blair's wise counsel meant that countries should advice USA to reduce its aggression in War. However, it did not prevail because USA led convention was specially against Iraq.

Q. 7

The glory of colonization that was promoted by the Britishers, and highly adopted by the Indians. However, Sir Syed Ahmed Khan and his son prominent and intelligent son Syed Mehmood both attended like they are equivalent to the Britishers. In 1867, occasion of Aga court that was fully awarded of not only Muslims but also whole Indians where Syed Ahmed Khan who would gain medal left that court due to Indians were ~~at~~ sat on lower-class seats compare to Britishers. Later, it was assigned to the Commissioner of Meerut, Williams, awarded the medal to Syed Ahmed Khan at the railway station.

Q. 4

- (i) They were lying in the sun.
- (ii) He will not come unless he is asked.
- (iii) John as well as Harry bears witness to it.
- (iv) The crew were now on board and they soon busied themselves in preparing to meet the coming storm.
- (v) Could I have a piece, please?
- (vi) Is there a sports club near by?
- (vii) The coat is quite big.
- (viii) It's only a short journey by train.

Qs (d)

That familiarity produces neglect has been long observed; the effect of all external objects. However, great or splendid, ~~sees~~ ceases with their novelty. The courtier stands without emotion in the royal presence. The music tramples under his foot the beauties of the ~~coast~~ spring with little attention to their fragrances, and the inhabitant of the coast casts his eye upon the immense diffusion of waters, without awe, wonder, or terror.