

1 | 1 | 6/5

"Good Governance is the panacea to all the ills & remedies."

A. Introduction

B. Good governance is the panacea to all the ills and remedies.

1- Promotes authorities to be accountable in front of public.

2- Ensures transparency in every affairs of the state.

3- Applies rule of law on all equally.

4- Encourages public participation in decision making.

5- Tries its level best to be effective and efficient.

6- follows a strategic vision to run a state.

7- Encourages consensus-oriented diplomacy.

8- Discourages corruption.

Keeping proper check and balance.

9- Addresses poverty and inequality from the society.

10- Promotes climate friendly mechanisms.

11- Keeps public away
from restlessness, conflict and instability.

12- Promotes economic growth and development

13- Promotes free and independent media.

14- Strong and independent judiciary.

15- Better management of resources.

c. Conclusion