

Modern Era is of skills, not of Theoretical Education.

Outline.

1. Introduction:

Modern era came up with modernization in every aspect of human life. In order to maximize the benefits from modernization, there is a dire need to learn skills. Therefore, this era is being considered as an era of skills, not of theoretical education.

2. ~~Why~~ ^{How} modern Era is of skills, not of theoretical education?

2.1 Modernization in industry needs skills not theoretical education

2.2 skills are learned in short period of time

2.3 Modern Era is of Artificial intelligence which itself is a product of skills

2.4 Modern era came up with economic inequalities which are easily coped by learning skills

2.5 Modern era of globalisation needs skills to compete with the international diaspora

2.6 Inclination of youth more towards skills than towards theoretical education

3. How Theoretical Education is Useless in Modern Era:

- 3.1 Theoretical education is costly and time consuming
- 3.2 Theoretical education does not cope with industrial needs
- 3.3 Theoretical education does not promise livelihood
- 3.4 Theoretical education binds a person socially whose skills set a person free
- 3.5 Theoretical education is, ^{one fits} for all formulae whose skills are learned individually

4. Conclusion: