PART-II

Q.2. Write a précis of the following passage in about 120 words and suggest a suitable title: (20)

(During my vacation last May, I had a hard time choosing a tour (Flights to Japan) Hong Kong and Australia are just too common.) What I wanted was somewhere exciting and exotic, a place where I could be spared from the holiday tour crowds. I was so happy when John called up, suggesting a trip to Cherokee, a county in the state of Oklahoma. I agreed and went off with the preparation immediately.)

(We took a flight to Cherokee and visited a town called Qualla Boundary surrounded by magnificent mountain scenery, the town painted a paradise before us. With its Oconalufee Indian Village reproducing tribal crafts and lifestyles of the 18th century and the outdoor historical pageant Unto These Hills playing six times weekly in the summer nights, Qualla Boundary tries to present a brief image of the Cherokee past to the tourists.)

(Despite the language barrier, we managed to find our way to the souvenir shops with the help of the natives. The shops were filled with rubber tomahawks and colorful traditional war bonnets, made of dyed turkey feathers. Tepees, cone-shaped tents made from animal skin, were also pitched near the shops. "Welcome! Want to get anything?" We looked up and saw a middle-aged man smiling at us. We were very surprised by his fluent English. He introduced himself as George and we ended up chatting till lunch time when he invited us for lunch at a nearby coffee shop.)

"Sometimes, I've to work from morning to sunset during the tour season. Anyway, this is still better off than being a woodcutter ... " Remembrance weighed heavy on George's mind and he went on to tell us that he used to cut firewood for a living but could hardly make ends meet. We learnt from him that the Cherokees do not depend solely on trade for survival. During the tour off-peak period, the tribe would have to try out other means for income. One of the successful ways is the "Bingo Weekend". On the Friday afternoons of the Bingo weekends, a large bingo hall was opened, attracting huge crowds of people to the various kinds of games like the Super Jackpot and the Warrior Game Special. According to George, these forms of entertainment fetch them great returns.)

Our final stop in Qualla Boundary was at the museum where arts, ranging from the simple hand-woven oak baskets to wood and stone carvings of wolves, ravens and other symbols of Cherokee cosmology are displayed. Back at home, I really missed the place and I would of course look forward to the next trip to another exotic place.

Q.3. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow: (20)

The New Year is the time for resolution. Mentally, at least most of us could compile formidable lists of 'do's and don'ts'. The same old formulae...

✍️ Flight: To Cherokee

During a ^{rough} phase of my vacation I decided to explore an thrilling destination. My buddy recommended the city named Cherokee. And upon arrival, visited the quaint region surrounded by towering mountains with breathtaking view. The landscapes reflected the charm of history. Despite provocation entered a shop ~~where~~ ~~was~~ they welcomed us to a beautiful Turkish aircraft adorned the walls. and a cheerful man greeted inviting a cup of coffee. The author introduced himself as a Dive Fighter in his country. The bingo festival was more joyous celebration. It also provided income for the tribes. Our last trip visit to a museum made the trip unforgettable look forward to exploring unevue destination.
