

Name: Rahmat Khan

Batch: 59158

Task: Outline

Peace: An achievable dream or a never ending struggle.

Outline:

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement: Undoubtedly, peace is not an achievable dream in the world. Peace is a never ending struggle due to numerous reasons. These reasons include wars, regime change attempts, military alliances, terrorism, genocidal wars and spread of warheads. Thus, peace is a never ending struggle in the world.

2. Peace is a never ending struggle: (Thesis)

2.1 wars are the sign of chaos forever

A case in point: Palestine vs. Israel war

2.2 Nuclearization of the world

International Crisis Group (ICG) Report "Threats of Warhead"

2.3 Regime change attempts are the sign of un-achievable peace

A case in point: Fall of Syria 2024

2.4 military alliances around the globe

"When China Rules the World" Jean Martin

2.5 New wave of terrorism around the globe

A case in point: TTP's violence 2021-24

2.6 Genocidal wars

A case in point: Israel's War Crime (ICC)

2.7 weaponization of space

A case in point: U.S.A vs. China

2.8 Hybrid warfare

A case study of Russia's Hybrid war against Ukraine

3. Peace is an achievable dream: (Anti-thesis)

3.1 The role peace keeping organizations is a sign of peace

A case study of the United Nations

3.2 Economic liberalization is the result of peace

A case study of World Trade Organization

3.3 Globalization is contributing to the prosperity of people

4. The existing reality of the world. (Synthesis)

4.1 International organizations have been used as political tools

A case study of the United Nations Security Council

4.2 Economic sanctions have pushed trade wars

A case in point: China vs. U.S

4.3 Globalization is the mother of chaos

A case in point: Transnational terrorism

5. Conclusion