The major cause of the breakdown of civilization is war.

Title: Breakdown of Civilizations:

Enemy is war

According to the author, the war is the enemy because it is the reason for the breakdown of civilizations. When one state becomes bound in a gift of war, then the chances are rare that state to come out of the war. Therefore, it is like a cancer which only destroys the state. Moreover, the current wars of the nuclear weapons are more lethal than the past one. So, in order to get rid of war states shall follow preventive peace making strategies to reduce further destructions.
