

Crisis of Good Governance in Pakistan

Outline

1 Introduction

Thesis Statement

Good governance is a prerequisite for social harmony, political instability and economic uncertainty and certainty about future. It delivers the fruit of progress and develops evenly to all sundry. Good governance is return at all level of society.

2 Situation of Governance in Pakistan

- a) Unequal distribution of natural resources
- b) Political instability due to constant of military
- c) weak writ of government
- d) No role of law
- e) Absence of independent judiciary
- f) ~~Cur~~ corruption at all level of institute
- g) All department hold of Democracy.
- h) 40% Population live under poverty rate.

3 Few factors to overcome the Crisis of Good Governance

- a) Equal distribution of natural resources

- b) To enhanced Political stability.
- c) Increased 7 Percent GDP For education
- d) Anti-corruption Companies Strength accountability and stability.
- e) Increased employment to reduce the Poverty ratio.
- f) Reduce economic crisis through industrial Sectors.
- g) established the local government
- h) enhanced the role of law
- i) To invest industrial sector and attract the foreign investors.

4 conclusion.