

PRECIS (CSS-2017)

439.

1) Proponents of Idle Leadership

2) Lazy Politics is Desirable

The author opines that global evils are generated actively, thus, devil is the busiest creature. There is no margin for relaxation in the kingdom of devil. He has been continuously striving and ~~reqs~~ lacks stagnance. Abundance of mis-leaded energies drive the world. Major wars could have been avoided by a laid-back approach of leaders instead of immediate response. The global scenario could have been peaceful if the statesmen did not engage in active negotiation process or agreements. Similarly, the present European politics could benefit from idle leadership. Certain judgemental and patriarchal leaders could be employed to do nothing for a prosperous situation.

Day: _____

Date: _____

Words of text: 439.

Words of precis: 110

TRANSLATION (CSS-2017)

It is significant to pay heed upon the enemy's perception of one's self ~~to~~ in order to detect hidden flaws.

Friends usually conceal our flaws to keep our heart. Either they do not acknowledge these traits as faulty or they prefer to ignore them. On contrary, the enemy leaves no stone unturned to look-out for a undesirable element, even if that requires exaggeration. A friend glorifies good traits but the enemy detects flaws. We must be grateful to enemy in this regard.