Q. 2 Make a précis of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

(15+5=20)

Twenty centuries ago, when the Chinese decided to live in peace, they built the Great Wall of China. They had a thought that perhaps no one could climb it because of its height. However, in the 100 years after its construction, the Chinese were invaded 3 times more. Enemy infantry and foot soldiers never had the need to climb or penetrate the wall because they always bribed the guards and got in through the gates. The Chinese had spent their resources in building high and thick walls; but they couldn't build the characters of the wall guards. It leads to the fact, building human character is different, more important and a greater job, indeed. It precedes the construction of everything else. This is what the new generation needs to be envisioned today. An orientalist said; "If you want to destroy the civilization of a nation, there are three ways: destroy the family structure; destroy the education system; belittle and demean their role models and references. To destroy the family; belittle and degrade motherhood. To destroy the education system; do not give importance to educators and teachers and reduce their reputation in society, so that their students will despise and belittle them. Belittle the reputation of role models; work insidiously to destroy scholars and scientists, so that they are suspected and no one listens to them or follow them. I am leaving you a question. When the conscious mother is lost, dedicated teachers are lost and role models are discredited, who will teach "HUMAN VALUES" to our young people? A nation which set its priority by rewarding its singers, dancers, actors, and entertainers and make its scientists and teachers sit in back rows, has no future at all.

Character Builds Nations

Twenty years ago, Chinese built the ~~great~~ Great Wall of China for self-defense. Despite this construction, they faced invasion three ~~#~~ times in 100 years of its construction.

Although the invaders were unable to climb the wall, the guards facilitated them by taking bribes. This shows that character building is more important than building walls. As an orientalist said, the destruction of family structure, the education system, and the belittling of role models is enough to destroy the civilization of a nation. He further asks, who will teach human values to young people if the mother, teacher, and role models are lost? A nation that prioritizes entertainers over scientists and teachers cannot succeed in the future.
