

Jan 13, 2025

MOTOWOTOFOSO

Date:...../...../20.....

(1)

Q.No.
X

Impacts of Brain Drain on Developing Nations

Brain drain is fatal to the prosperity of a nation. It shuffles the learned and skilled people from their own countries, resulting in the demise of their economy, education, politics, agriculture, institutions and businesses. This aggravates the sufferings of developing nations.

Outline:

1- Introduction

2- Understanding brain drain

3- Reasons of brain drain

4- Brain drain: an alarming threat for developing nations

5- Impacts of brain drain on developing nations

a- Migration of skilled and learned people

b- Decrease in the technical staff

c- Decline in innovation

d- Poor quality of education

e- Decrease in the number of good political leaders

f- Reduction in the agricultural products

g- Drop in the skill based businesses

h- Decline in prelaning

i- Dependency on foreign expertise

j- Rise in the aging work force k- Socially fragmented society

l- Increase in the poverty rate

m- Weakens the strength of institutions

6- Brain drain in Pakistan

7- Realistic recommendation for controlling the negative impacts of brain drain

8- Conclusion