

strengthening of the state through 26th amendment will achieve internal stability in Pakistan.

Outline:

1. Introduction:

Although 26th constitutional amendment has been passed, aimed at balancing the powers among three tiers of the state, yet it is confronting with challenges of implementation in true spirit and confrontation between parliament and judiciary. These challenges can be resolved by consensus among three pillars of state.

2. How internal stability will be achieved through 26th amendment?

- 2.1 26th amendment will increase the power of parliament thus strengthening state through democracy
- 2.2 Judicial activism will be curbed
- 2.3 Executive check on judiciary will be enhanced
- 2.4 Environment will be protected to tackle climate change
- 2.5 Tenures of office of Chief Justice and Army Chief will be fixed to promote good security

3. Challenges faced by 26th amend ment in achieving internal stability:

3.1 Vague mechanism of implementation

3.2 Political victimisation will be enhanced

3.3 Independence of judiciary will be undermined

3.4 Hurdles posed by lawyers association

4. Way forward to Ensure Effective Implementation of 26th amendment to achieve internal stability:

3.1 Adopt a clear mechanism of implementation

3.2 Make political consensus

3.3 Adopt lawyer's suggestions

5. Conclusion:

Bring further maturity in your arguments