

Human rights - a dream in today's world.

Outline:

1. Introduction: Be careful while using connectors

Thesis statement: The existence of the world order is based on equality, justice and unity under international treaties.

However, the reality of today's world is unimaginable. Humans' rights have become a dream to be achieved in today's world. Individuals dream to live live, reduce global warming, combat poverty, achieve freedom and eliminate discrimination.

2. Overview of human rights:

3. Human rights: a dream in today's world:

3.1 Humans' right to live ~~live~~ is a dream in today's world

A case in point: Genocide of Palestinians

3.2 Reducing global warming is a dream of every nation

COP 29 Conference

3.3 Combating poverty is the only aim of nations

Reuters Report 2024

3.4 Freedom of speech is the main objective of humans' lives

A case in point: Taliban 2.0

3.5 Achieving gender equality is a dream of every individual

Global Gender Gap Report 2024

3.6 People dream a world without discrimination

A case in point: Islamophobia in the West

3.7 Right to practice respective religions freely

A Report from Wafa News Palestine

4. Recommendations to achieve the dream of human rights in today's world:

4.1 Respect for universal rights declaration under ICC, Rome Statute

4.2 Role of international community is needed to eliminate oppression

4.3 International peace keeping organizations such as UNSO and OIC must eliminate chaos in the world

4.4 Shifting into sustainable energy sources so as to achieve the dream of favorable environment

4.5 Promotion of religious tolerance activities with the help of scholars and intellectuals

4.6 Encouraging diplomacy rather than aggression among humans

5. Conclusion