Q7: An African philosopher once said that ~~the~~^{when} Europeans came to Africa they had ~~the~~^{innovation} technology and ~~had~~^{had} Africans had land. They promised that if trusted, they will bring prosperity in the region. As time elapsed, ~~and~~ people realised that they no longer own their own land and they payed the price of innovation with their previous land. In similar fashions, social networks like whatsapp and facebook emerged. They insisted that they were free of cost and reliable. When the people came to senses it was too late ~~already~~. This time they had paid the price again in the form of their freedom. ~~was~~ ~~deliberate~~.

Schengen Visa Applications and Plight of Pakistani Citizens

sentence structure is incorrect and sentence is too long

Discrimination of visa applications of Pakistanis by Schengen countries is similar to a high-profile ^{event} where the host rejects the ~~guests~~ ^{visitors} on trivial reasons. These applications are considered suspicious and ~~dismissed~~ ^{dismissed} ~~without~~ ^{without} processing. Contrastingly, the Western citizens seeking Pakistani visas get red-carpet treatment, ~~however~~, Pakistanis get only stringent scrutiny. To summarise this, Pakistanis need to be recognized as fellow humans and treated with respect. ~~Although~~ ^{Although}, ~~it is possibly~~ ^{Europeans will possibly understand this when they face similar scenario.}
