

Pakistani women have the same chances as men.

A - Introduction

B - Pakistani women still do not have equal opportunities as men.

C - Conclusion

* Thesis Statement:-

Pakistani women still disadvantageous in various aspect of life, due to deeply ingrained societal norms and biases that perpetuate gender inequality.

Outlines:-

- ① Discriminatory laws and policies hinder women right.
- ② Lack of representation in government and decision making positions.
- ③ Weak enforcement of laws protecting women rights.
- ④ Limited access to various job opportunities.

0002AM
PPS #

⑤ Wage gap and unequal payment for equal work

⑥ Patriarchal societal norms and stereotypes limited women socially.

⑦ Limited social mobility and freedom for women.

⑧ Cultural attitudes perpetuating gender based discrimination.

⑨ Limited access to technology and digital literacy.

⑩ Limited access to education in various areas for women.

⑪ Online harassment targeting women.

⑫ Impact of climate change on women's livelihoods and health as they are physically weak.

⑬ Women's role in environmental conservation and sustainability.

⑭ Weak laws and enforcement protecting women from violence.

⑮ Limited access to justice and legal resources.

⑯ Role of law enforcement agencies in promoting women's rights.

⑰ Women's under-representation in parliament and provincial assemblies.

⑱ Prevalence of child marriages and its consequences.

⑲ Limited role of women in foreign policy and international relations.