

(2022) CSS

Comprehension

Ans: 1: Author characterized the concept of civil society in this way that civil society is the place where individuals come together having shared interest mutual goals and gathering at a public place not at home, not at job. Civil Society deals many issues which are common to all, managing small events and come closer and built a social harmony. Civil society refers all those places where persons gather and enjoy & mutually like book readings, bowling leagues, other ~~com~~ communities like that. In civil society, all individuals giving their best for fostering solidarity and also sharing problems related to jobs, relationships, family, etc.

Ans. 2:-

Civil society strive towards socialization driven by tolerance because when individuals gathered in an community events or any other social gather might they face differences of opinions. So, to eradicate any conflict and booster patience and tolerance by developing productive strategies that how can relevant issue be resolved. Better socialization is that in which individual learn to respond wisely not to react aggressively. So, civil society gave the message of not to respond that conflicted issues which might create any problem.

Ans. 3.

Social capital means a place where all individuals mutually think about each other's solidarity. That in which way one can avoid conflicts, different opinions, and in which way one can strengthen other's ~~and~~ interest.

Social capital also develops a sense of social trust which helps a sense of mutual obligation. In this way nations grow and in this way society makes a better human being.

This is the social capital which many political scientists and sociologists always talking about.

Answer 4:

Weakening state of a civil society may harms social trust, mutual interest, mutual solidarity which bringes all individuals together. When civil society is weakened then there are less chances to work effeciently by societal politicians.

civil society can create bundle of conflicts when mutual harmony is disturbed. And a weaker civil society results an aggressive individual and also when there is no mutual interest than issues related to society can not be addressed properly.

