

Date 29/06/2025

"People have become overly dependent on technology". (2023):
(Descriptive + Argumentative).

Outline:-

- 1) Introduction.
- 2) Definition of technology and its types.
- 3) People have become overly dependent on technology; counter arguments.
 - a) Doing a gym.
 - b) Spending time with families.
 - c) Doing a walk to maintain their physical health.
- 4) People have become overly dependent on technology;
 - a) Ordering food online.
 - b) Doing online business.
 - c) Transferring online money.
 - d) Using credit cards while shopping, travelling and eating.
 - e) Doing scams and frauds.
 - f) Winning wars due to technology.
 - g) Making new mass destructive weapons.
 - h) Raising their voices against the unjust.
 - i) Having Artificial Intelligence.
 - j) Casting online votes.
- 5) Conclusion.

Signature

RS

No.

"Same Essay in 'Descriptive form'."

Outline :-

1) Introduction.

2) Definition of technology and its types.

3) People have ^{become} overly dependent on technology.

a) Ordering online food.

b) Doing online business across the world.

c) Transferring money online.

d) Using credit cards during outing.

e) Doing scams and frauds.

f) Winning the wars.

(Recent examples; Pakistan and India contention and the USA bombardment on Iran's nuclear sites).

g) Making new mass destructive weapons.

(Like Atomic and hydrogen bomb).

(ICBM; North Korea's missiles have more than 55000 kilometers range).

h) Having Artificial Intelligence.

(Provides anything within nano-seconds and save people time).

i) Raising their voices against the unjust.

(Examples; Fatme Rape case Pakistan (Sindh), Israel's Genocide in Gaza, and Modi's Kashmir policies).

j) Casting online votes and conducting surveys from homes.

Date _____

k) Pursuing online education.

L) Participating online in different education tests

(Examples; Duo-lingo English test for admission in foreign universities and University of London online exams from across the world).

m) Taking online medical suggestion from the best institutions.

n) Engaging with hot issues from all over the world.

(Recent hot issues; India-Pakistan conflict, Iran-Israel war, Israel's genocide in Gaza, and Ukraine-Russia contention).

1)  Conclusion.