discrimination.

Less industrilization
and agriculture outcomes
due to old practices

An investment in knowledge pays the best Interest

Outlines

I- Introduction

II- Importance of investing in education

III- Benefits of endowment in knowledge:

(i) Produces informed citizens that directly supports the democratic norms in the State;

(ii) Removes inequality and poverty in the society;

(iii) Decreases gender gap discrimination and enhance cooperation;

(iv) Promotes skilled based education in agriculture and industrial sector;

(v) Boosts economy via digitilization and E-commerce by increasing knowledge based economy;

(vi) Declines in extremism and terrorism due to awareness in society;

(vii) Brings peace and stability at regional level;

(viii) Enhances global cooperation by innovations, research and development.

IV- Consequence of not investing in education:

(i) Declines in democratic norms in the society and enhance disstability;

(ii) Promotes inequality and poverty at state level;

(iii) Lessens in industrial and agriculture outcomes due to unskilled workers;

(iv) Reduces over-all economy of a state because of less innovations, research and developement;

(v) Increases extremism and terrorism by virtue of less awarness and knowledge.

V- Conclusion