

Comprehension 2001.

Question No (a) In what sense is poetry the language of the imagination and the passion?

Ans:- Poetry is the language of the imagination and passion, because it belongs to those things which arise sudden emotions or experiences whether good or bad. It is also very close to human feelings as well as words. Moreover, its subject can be ~~get~~ intangible in shape.

Q No (b) How is poetry the universal language of the heart?

Ans:- Poetry is the universal language of the heart, it covers entire nature and explain it, like it born. Such as: sense of beauty, explain power, harmony, a growth of flowers and motion of the waves of the sea.

Q20K) Difference

History

- It is grave
- It is complicated
- Only records wars
- Nothing to communicate
- Nothing to listen with delight

Poetry

- It is grave.
- It is deeper and wider.
- It expands human thoughts
- It is stuff of which human life is made.
- It refines human

Q No (2): Explain the phrase
"man is poetical animal"

Ans: This phrase suggests humans have an inherent capacity for imagination, creativity, and a tendency to find beauty in the world.

Q No 1) Explain the following words.

i) It relates to whatever gives immediate pleasure or pain to human heart.

Ans: It suggests ^{that} anything which arise or gives sudden feelings or shocks to human heart.

ii) A sense of beauty:

Ans: It suggests ~~not~~ capacity of an individual to perceive and appreciate aesthetic qualities, experiencing pleasure or delight in things considered beautiful.

iii) 'Power'

Ans: This word means ability to act or produce an effect.

iv) Harmony:

Ans: It means peaceful agreement on certain things.

(V) CumberSome and unwieldy masses of things.

~~Ans:~~ It means complicated things which are large.

Ans: Complicated and many things which difficult to carry.

(VI) It is the stuff of which our life is made.

Ans: It suggests that life, in its essence, is shaped by the experiences, emotions and thoughts that makeup ~~our~~ individual existence.