With famous phrase "Man is born free, but everywhere in chain"

Rousseau asserts that modern state represses the physical and mental freedom and do nothing for the civil freedom for the sake which entered the civil society.

In modern era freedom man is associated with media. Media is termed as a fourth pillar of democracy. Israel and Palestine conflict dates back more than a century. Currently, the war sparking between them on October 2023.

The media play a pivotal role in shaping of public opinion, during Israel and Palestine conflicts. Dissemination of information and misinformation, influencing international policy and either escalating and de-escalating, and also used propaganda as tool of influence.

Firstly, the media play fundamental role in information dissemination in region and globally - about ongoing situation, of conflict.

News outlets or prominent international media organizations such as BBC, CNN, The York Times, AL-Jazeera and Reuters providing extensive coverage. Independent Journalist who's providing real time update such as Muna El Kurd palestinian Journalist and activist know for documenting eviction in sheikh Jarrah via social media. and Motaz Razza who photojournalist from palestine and became recognized as globally for sharing realities of life under bombardment.

They provide update on military actions, peace talks, casualties, Humanitarian crises and political development. In region the ^{access of} conflicts is limited. International media becomes primary lens through which people understand the situation. This access to information can create global peace talk ^{consciousness} and generate empathy, leading international to call for peace and humanitarian resistance.

Secondly, During the Israel and Palestine conflict the way media outlet frame events significantly influences how the public interpret them. Israeli media framing the military action as necessary responses for security threats.

Western organization such as Fox News based in USA and framing as pro-Israel. Its coverage style Palestinian as aggressor and terrorists, and many other like CNN, The New York Times defending Israel. International media may align with another depending on their political develo-ment, and cultural perspective.

This outlet framing the events, like not only the shaping public opinion, also the decisions of policymaking and international organization. Biased or one sided narrative can reinforce stereotype, deepen polarization, or hinder the diplomatic solutions. While, Palestinian media emphasizes the resistance to occupation and oppression. Muslim countries media such as AL-Jazeera based in Qatar its reporting style as more sympathetic to Palestine, and showing humanitarian crises.

Press TV based in Iran. Anti Israel and reporting pro-Israel and hostility to western media and Israel narrative. Some outlets reporting as neutral based. The Guardian outlet liberal based and focused on human rights, and also criticizing the Israel media, military action.

Thirdly, the uses of propaganda as a tool of influence. Israel uses a propaganda the western media portrays the military action as self defence from palestine, and labeling as terrorist organization. Israel military spokesperson viewed on media network. Military actions responses for security threats and legitimacy. Palestinian group uses to highlight the suffering of civilians under occupation, blockade or military strikes. Images of destroyed homes, injured children, and funerals are widely circulated to garner international sympathy and support. In conflicts of Israel and palestine often viewed misinformation reporting by international organizations. In reality Israeli government play a genocidal action on palestine where children died due to hunger. Israel military target on civilians, mosques and
