

Introduction

Artificial intelligence is the biggest event happened in the world after world war II. (Bill gates)

The artificial intelligence is one of the remarkable discovery of science which has bring revolution in many fields. It has plenty of advantages and easily accessible. For instance, its vital role in finance, advancement in educational field, enhancement in health and mass awareness. Although it has many benefits but there are some serious concerns. These include jobs replacement, ethical and moral challenges and the risk of death of creativity. We will discuss Artificial intelligence is evolving day by day and it is need of the time to overcome these concerns and balance the them.