

Brain Storming:

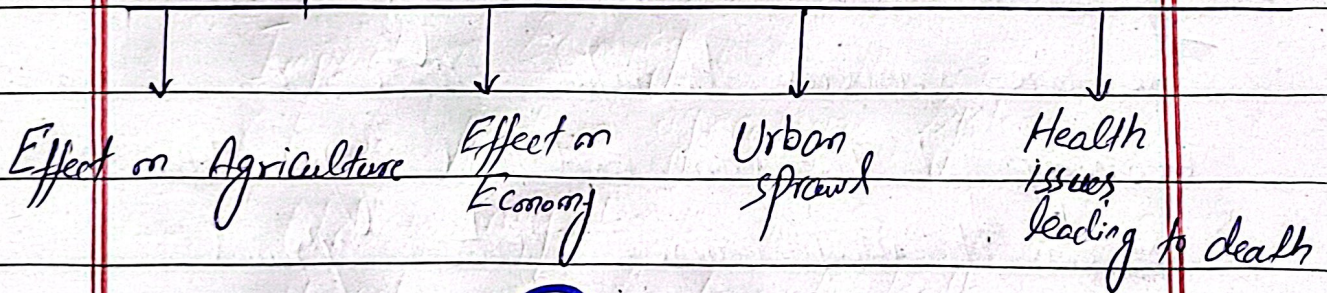

Climate change

water terrorism by india

Causes of Water Crisis in Pakistan

Effects of water crisis On Pakistan

Outline

(1) Introduction:

- a) Hook
- b) Background!

c) Thesis statement:

one of the most important natural resources in Pakistan. Unfortunately, due to the lack of measures for securing and preserving natural resources, our country is suffering from water scarcity. There are multiple causes of water crisis in Pakistan including ~~the~~ delay in dams construction, climate change, rapid population growth, water wastage due to poor irrigation system, lack of proper water management, domestic use of water and water terrorism by India. There are various harmful effects on economy of Pakistan and its agriculture system. It may cause urban sprawl and health issues.

II) Causes of Water Crisis in Pakistan

a) National Causes:

- i) Delay in dams construction
- ii) Climate change
- iii) Rapid population growth
- iv) water wastage due to poor irrigation system

- v) Lack of proper water management
- vi) Domestic abuse of water

b) International Cause:

Water terrorism by India

- Violation of Indus-Water Treaty
- Construction of Wullar barrage
- Construction of Baglihar dam
- Korrishnaganga project on River Neelem

III) Consequences of Water Crisis in Pakistan

- a) Impact on Economy
- b) Adverse effect on agriculture system
- c) Urban migration
- d) Health issues leading to death

IV) Conclusion