

Date: ___/___/20

M T W T F S

Has democracy failed to deliver in Pakistan?

Outline:-

1. Introduction

Despite respected democratic transitions, democracy in Pakistan has largely failed to deliver institutional stability and socio-economic development. Weak governance, elite capture, and policy inconsistency have eroded public trust in democratic processes. For democracy to deliver, Pakistan must strengthen accountability, rule of law and inclusive governance.

2. Historical Perspective of democracy in Pakistan

3. Features of true democracy

3.1 Extreme Poverty confirms the failure of democracy

i) 44.7% of total population lives below poverty

3.2 Pucity of transparency and Accountability manifests the reality of democracy in Pakistan

3.3 Unseen deviation in Inflation and Political instability

3.4 Failed to ensure national integration

(i) Insurgency in Balochistan and KPK: Global

Terrorism Index Report

3.5 Freedom of Speech can never be denied in real democratic State

3.6 Commonness of Gender inequality Shows the worth of democracy

3.7 Drawbacks of democratic government and failed to enhance FDI

3.8 Failed to Provide basic needs

(i) Food

(ii) Shelter

(iii) Education

4. Appropriate way forward to deliver democracy in Pakistan

4.1 Freedom of Press: emergence of Social media and Private Channels

(i) World Freedom Index

Report: Norway, Estonia

4.2 Supremacy of Constitution should be ensured

4.3 Article Six9 should be Practiced in letter and spirit

4.4 Free and Fair election should be ensured through independent Election Commission

4.5 Promoting Political Stability

4.6 Promoting Economic development and Socio-economic Partnership

5. Conclusion