

Precis Writing

The citizens of every country considers themselves and their country better as comparatively to others, but it is wrong because just like peoples country's also have certain good and bad qualities as well and we must adopt the good qualities wherever we may find it & remove the bad qualities. India, unfortunately is going through a hard time and its condition can be made better by expelling the bad qualities & adopting the good ones wherever we may find them.

Title: Making a better world.

Original passage = 226 words

Precis = 80 words