

Narendra Modi opted for political maneuvering over pursuing a diplomatic course of action. He manipulated both the Indian public and international community by projecting a hostile image of Pakistan. He is consistently on the forefront of attributing every shortcoming of India's security apparatus to Pakistan. The Pahalgam attack is another episode of anti-Pakistan propaganda, strategically timed to influence the upcoming elections. However, the resolute response of the Pakistan army to their unprovoked strikes on civilians conveyed a clear message that such orchestrated provocations would not succeed against us. The Pakistan military embodied the true spirit of Bungay-al-Marsus in the face of a cunning adversary, reaffirming that Pakistan's sovereignty and existence are irreducible -

تاریخ: