

Narendra Modi opted for political maneuvering over pursuing a diplomatic course of action.

He manipulated both the Indian public and international community by ~~projecting a hostile image of~~ always propagating and systematically portraying Pakistan. He is consistently on the forefront of attributing every short-coming of India's security apparatus to Pakistan. The Pahalgam attack is another episode of anti-Pakistan propaganda, strategically timed to influence the upcoming elections.

However, the resolute response of the Pakistan army to their unprovoked strikes on civilians conveyed a clear message that such orchestrated provocations would not succeed against us.

The Pakistan military embodied the true spirit of Bungan-al-Marsus in the face of a cunning adversary, reaffirming
