The Concept of Nationalism

Nationalism has different <sup>concepts</sup> as it protects the rights from outside aggression. It connects people with unity, <sup>helps</sup> help them to achieve common objectives. It also <sup>defines</sup> defines a person's spiritual attachment to his own country. ~~Which is frequently addressed as "motherland" or "fatherland."~~ National interests help in the growth and promotion of nationalism. National <sup>exhibit</sup> feelings are the most important which exhibit the pride of possession of a common land. Geographical unity helps in multidimensional societal challenges, which open a mixed area of cooperation among people. Those who live together for long can construct ways to live, work and share common goods and ideas.
