The author narrates artistic works of Najad Hassan, a Palestinian film-maker. He produced his first work "Independence" in 1994, which is about Israel's belief of independence after stealing other land. The author received email from another Najad Hassan about another film "My Grand Father's Path". This film highlights the strong influence of ~~not~~ ^{bad} tactics of enemies on individuals. These are like Psychological traps, under which, people forget their ideal and positive life aspects and soon become like their animals. However, acts of society can protect from such traps. Author ~~says~~ ^{claims} this new film as artfully developed, ~~very~~ and tightly emphasized on Palestinian ~~freedom~~ in front of Israel's encroachment. Its short version broadcast on Al-Jazeera and one should watch it without interruption.
