

(CSS-2016)

~~Title:~~ A Memorable Trip to Cherokee

~~Precis:~~

The author ~~says that~~ ^{wanted to} choosing a remote destination for his last year trip ~~was~~ challenging. As soon as his friend suggested from the uncommon destination of Cherokee, the ~~writer~~ ^{he} agreed immediately. They ~~flew to the state~~ and visited a town surrounded by mountains. As per the writer, this town presented a brief reflection of Cherokee's past and traditions. He added that ~~despite~~ the language barrier, they visited a vintage shop whose owner surprised them with his fluent English accent. They ~~chatted and had lunch~~ together. The shopkeeper told them that the tribes here not only rely on trade but also earn through other means specially from Bingo Weekends. Moreover, ~~author's~~ ^{their} last stop was a museum that presented a brief image of Cherokee's rich traditional ^{history} cosmology. After returning from the trip, the ~~author~~ ^{he} felt nostalgic but excited to explore other such destinations in the future.

Precis Words = 120

Paragraph Words = 462

attend to pointed out issues
need improvement
6/20