7: Conclusion: Summary of Essay

"The Essay"

It is a famous saying that "whoever controls the media, controls the mind." The media is most powerful entity on earth. They have the power to make innocent guilty and to make guilty innocent, because they control minds of the masses. The media plays a decisive role in shaping global narrative and public perception yet there is biasness in media coverage. Social media and Israel is suppressing Palestinians and their right to express freedom of speech. Social media and grass root journalism offers a counter narrative by raising awareness in people, they are now demanding global accountability for this genocide. Battles are not only fought on ground but also in news rooms and social media timelines. This essay explores how media acts as both oppression and resistance in Israel-Palestine conflict.
