

Make precis of the passage and suggest a suitable title to it.

Poverty has myriads of causes in Pakistan. One of the main causes of poverty is illiteracy which is so common in Pakistan. This means lack of basic understanding of reading and writing abilities. This is more common among females. Illiteracy rate in Pakistan is forty three percent; therefore, twenty four percent people are living below the poverty line. Furthermore, poverty also emerges due to absence of job opportunities in both private and public sector and in such situation citizens are unable to get money to fulfill their basic needs. Poor economic growth is another factor that leads a society toward poverty and this ultimately minimizes the earning potential of people. Therefore, poverty stems through illiteracy, absence of job opportunities and poor economic growth. In short, it can be stated that poverty has many reasons to occur in Pakistan.
