A Filmmaker's tale on Israel's actions

Title is generic

Date _____

Nizar Hassan was born and raised in Makhad. After graduating he became a filmmaker. He produced "Independence, a mockery of the concept of Israel's freedom. As the world's attention was grasped by the atrocities of Israel, the writer received an email by Nizar Hassan, in which he has written about his latest film "my Grandfather's path". The writer then says if you are too angered by the actions of Israel everyday, you would lose your real self. The writer then praises the latest work of Nizar Hassan and says that it must be watched in orego.
