

Things change for Better.

Everything changes with time. Different things and places have transformed from ^{their} its dead version to new. This is the man who made it possible, through discoveries. He created wonderful buildings, beautiful stations, and means of transport and ~~communication~~. Such modern inventions ^{nourished} ~~nourish~~ their lives. However, some cruel invaders such as Gengis Khan and Halgu Khan exploited the peace especially in Baghdad and Delhi but later everything again started shining.

Do not include examples in precis. Just write their essence.
