The Role and Influence of Nizar Hassan's Work

Nizar Hassan was born and raised in Mashhad, graduated in Anthropology and started working in TV. He contemplates on Israelis' perspective of stolen homeland and calling it as independence. He produced films and documentaries related to Palestine. Further, he suggests not to become victim of the false narrative of Zionist settler colonists. By doing so, it simply means adopting their violent tactics impliedly and forgetting about real identities. Moreover, he has also protected himself from falling into their false trap because of Palestine's real identities. His work is one such example that portrayed Palestinian people's ideology about their homeland.
