

Name: ShaFique Ahmed
Batch: 74

The Essence of Profession Over Personal Gain

The main purpose of a true profession is to achieve professional goals rather than financial gains. Although professionals are paid for their services they prioritize their work and provide services to the public. Their profession is their motivation. They always dedicate themselves to improving and enhancing their services. Therefore, their primary focus is to work for the betterment of society by their respective fields more than personal gains.