Rewriting of dialogue

Helen asked Mr. West about Jack. Mr. West replied that he had left the company. Helen surprisingly asked the reason. Mr. West told her that he demanded a rise in his salary but I had not given it to him. Helen asked the reason of not increasing salary. Mr. West told her that John had been lazy. Helen inquired that if John had found another job. Mr. West nodded and said that he was working in a film company. Helen interestingly asked John's salary. Mr. West generally said that may be he earned quite a lot. Helen again questioned about John's interest in his new job. Mr. West slightly said that he did not know.
