"I know not with what weapons WWIII will be fought, but WWIV would be fought with sticks and stones"

Albert Einstein

The words of great scientist and thinker Albert Einstein conform the unfortunate reality that the consequences of WWIII would be so so horrific and destructive that the world ^{would} reach the stone age. It would not likely be just rebirth of humanity but also fortunate survival of our mother planet. The reason is that it would ^{only} be nuclear war, which would be very hard to avoid. The start of this war would possibly be a stepping stone towards entire destruction of the world. Currently, the circumstances, leading to eruption of this war, are taking birth at rapid pace. Persistence of civil wars and chaos in many states, growing regional conflicts like Russia - Ukraine, Israel - Hamas, soaring proliferation of nuclear weapons, rising tensions between great powers are among few ~~the~~ circumstances, leading to WWIII. Many factors are responsible for emergence of such circumstances. Failure of UN, biased role of international institutions and double standards of global powers
