

Reading Comprehension Test-2

Q-1

It has been lamented in the text that an ordinary man is ignorant of art, he does not recognize it, value it and cannot identify the lack of it in others work. He has not exercised his aesthetic activity in discovery of beauty in the Universe.

Q-2

An ordinary man does not recognize the aesthetic activity of the spirit and he does not recognize, value or impart the beauty of art in universe and in artificial things too. While in contrast, an artist is well aware of beauty of art because he recognizes this beauty in universe and then imparts it in his work. So he exercises aesthetic activity in discovery of beauty in the universe.

Q.3

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by satisfying our spiritual desire, seeing and recognizing beauty of art in the world and seeking this in all things made by man and then valuing it.

Q.4

By saying "Beauty is not an ornament to life" the writer means that beauty is not just a source of pleasure while it is ^{an essential} part of both life and things made by man. Beauty in art shapes objects as moral activity shapes actions.

Q-5

Yes, I agree that art and beauty affect our practical life and morals. They change our perceptions and satisfy our spiritual desire. Without these things in our life, our life becomes dull, evil and waste because we will not see thoughts with truths in them.
