

Qualities of True Leaders

The sense of reality is the first quality of the leaders. It is useless to make projects in politics if people do not want to take benefit. Moreover, when people are not independent, the leaders sense the loop holes of nation and determine to solve it. He treats people equally irrespective of their class and gives favor to others. He puts effort to make strong nation and people collaborate in it. He estimates people violence if the Government could be the cause of social issue. Therefore, people want a wise person would guide them on right path with his true spirit for the country. The brave leaders determine that difficult things are possible. So, a great man puts all efforts to make the nation prosper and make changes in laws for the people. However, his efforts must be practice.

Date: _____

M T W T F S S

He do not waste time on making schemes. He should develop accurate and peaceful social system.

In his public address, his new theories also gives ~~ex~~benefits to religious people. He works to get benefits from schemes and plan to overcome hurdles. But belief on abilities and blaming on the system is the greater fault in politicians. Nevertheless, a true prioritize his country on national trust.

Total words = 609

word = 203

can't