

Date: _____

Delayed Marriages: Causes and Consequences

Brainstorm

Causes

- Career Prioritization
- Economic Condition
- Sectarian restrictions
- Societal Pressures and expectations
- Impact of media and Globalization

Consequences

- Weakening family System
- Demographic Imbalance
- Lack of responsibility
- Social Criticism
- Risk of Health Issues

Outline:-

Introduction:-

Thesis Statement:- Delayed marriages are a growing trend caused by factors such as career priorities, economic condition, sectarian restriction, societal expectations, impact of media; while this delay leads to consequences including weakening family system, demographic imbalance, lack of responsibilities, Social Criticism and risk of health issues.

Date: _____

Main Body:-

A:- Causes of delayed marriages:-

1) Career Prioritization:-

1.1) Both men and women are increasingly Career-focused.

1.2) Many prefer financial independence before marriage.

2) Economic Condition:-

2.1) Rising Cost of weddings and living Standards.

2.2) Unemployment makes marriages financially burdensome.

3) Sectarian restrictions:-

Rephrase this point

3.1) Delays due to rigid Sectarian preferences or interfaith complications.

3.2) Families opposing inter-Caste marriages.

4) Societal pressures and Expectations

4.1) Increased emphasis on the "perfect match" in terms of profession,

Date: _____
Caste, income.

4.2) Parents delaying proposals due to Perfectionism or rigid traditions.

5) Impact of Social media and Globalization: -

5.1) Exposure to Western values where marriage is not a priority in early life.

B:- Consequences of delayed marriages: -

1) Weakening family system: -

1.1- Biological Constraints reduce fertility after certain ages.

1.2- Late marriage causes delays in building a family.

2) Demographic imbalance: -

2.1- Rising number of unmarried may create social imbalance.

2.2- Late childbirth, affecting population structure.

3- Social Criticism: -

People are judged for being unmarried after a certain age.

3.2. As people grow older, they might feel pressure. This can lead to marrying someone incompatible just to settle down.

4) Lack of responsibility:-

5) Risk of Health Issues:-
Stress-related conditions
Increased chances of infertility,

The Essay^{just}

Marriage is no longer a social contract, and it has become a personal journey, delayed for perfection or stability. In recent years, the trend gained momentum across the world, due to focus on education or career.

Some other reasons economic conditions, sectarian restrictions, expectations.

While this delay leads to consequences including demographic imbalance,

Date: _____
Lack of responsibility, risk of health issues and Social Criticism.

Not a comprehensive outline

Consequences are not up to the mark

Causes of late marriage are fine

Write conclusion heading at the end of the essay

Introduction -follow proper structure

Start with the hook

Summary of your outline and write thesis statement in the introduction as well.