

Comprehension 2020

Define Globalization.

Globalization is a complex process of interacting people having different identities in various aspects, sharing some common bonds, but living in different parts of world. This interaction of different people across the globe is termed as globalization.

What is electronic mass communication.

The interaction of people using information technology like the devices which are capable of promoting efficient communication among different nations. These include computer networking and mass communication technology.

Date: 1/1/2023 Day: 1/1/2023

Q. What does the term Third World denote?

Third world countries are developing countries those where size of ~~public~~ sector is decreasing/shrinking.

Because of small size of public sector government faces hurdle in the path of prosperity

REWRITE THIS

Q. What is privatization

Privatization is the process followed by countries which have ~~liberal~~ policy of government. In developed countries, state owned enterprises are downsized

by giving ~~giving~~ sector government sector institutes to private sector for economic development

Q:5 liberalism

liberalization refers to the policy of government followed by the developed state to maximize economic benefit by the size and rights of government by promoting free market trade, for the prosperity

single sentence
answer is incorrect
format a sentence
is not supposed to be on 9 lines!!!!

read basic grammar rules
answers are below average
need improvement
not satisfactory

6/20