

Cinema as a Voice Against Injustices

Nizar Hussain was a pre-eminent documentary filmmaker who frequently challenged the Israeli notion of "Independence" by exposing its absurdity related to the act of stealing other people's homelands. Through his art and cinema, the Palestinian perspective of resilience has always been put in front of the entire world. Moreover, it reminded the world of not being consumed by the anger or hatred in response to the human rights violations in Palestine. It also guided the perspective of the world towards Israel-Palestine conflict. In this regard, Nizar Hussain's documentary "My Grandfather's Path" proved to be an outstanding work by delivering a poetic tribute to Palestinians' identity and resilience amidst their survival struggles.

Total Words: 346
Precis Words: 111

dear student you have not written some of the main points of the passage like becoming like your enemy etc main idea is picked but there is no coherence and symmetry in the precis not satisfactory
need improvement in sentence structure and basic grammar 4/20