

Biased media is a threat to Pakistan's democracy.

outline

A. Introduction

1. Objectives of media.
2. Biases of media.
3. Thesis statement.

B. How Biased media can be a threat to Pakistan's democracy?

1. Media being used to cause political polarization.

a. Media channels supporting certain political figures while defaming other.

b. Media supporting certain parties' manifesto.

2. Passive role of media in highlighting grievances of people.

a. Non-recognition of grievances of Balochistan.

b. Non-acknowledgement of issues KPK.

3. Division of media in portraying national narrative.

- a. Division on National security program
- b. Division on Kashmir issue.
- c. Division on Single National Curric-ulum.

4. Media being used as a tool of political engineering.

- a. Selective accountability of certain political party or figure.

- b. Political victimization.

5. Manipulation of public opinion.

- a. Media's role during election campaign.

- b. Spread of one-sided narrative.

- c. Spread of misinformation.

Q- What should the role of media?

1. Media should be free from political influence.

- a. Media should be neutral.

- b. Media should not be one-sided when supporting any party's manifesto.

2. Media should highlight grievances of every province unbiasedly.

- a. It should highlight what are demands of people of Balochistan and KPK.

3. <sup>Media</sup> ~~M~~ should not go against national narrative.

a. Example of Indian and American media over national issues.

4. Media should follow the ethics of journalism.

a. Truth and Accuracy.

b. Fairness and Impartiality.

c. Independence.

d. Humanity

e. Accountability.

D. Conclusion