The unhappy Man: Underlying Causes

The unhappy men often have common life experience - deprivation of any kind during youth. Resultantly make their life imbalance. By and by, they become pleasure seekers and did not enjoy the process of getting success. If they fail to achieve their goal, they lose the hope to get success again and choose a unhappy life. In actual, no one consciously chooses to be unhappy - except wise man who ~~had~~ have deeply understood the world. This idea is misinterpreted by common men.

Overpopulation: An Uprising issue

The issue of over population needs to be controlled in order to provide quality life. The state is supposed to take some measures; otherwise, there will be a scarcity of food. If the issue remains neglected, it will decrease the quality of life. In such situation, educated people take some actions; however, the number of uneducated people will keep growing. The problem needs to be addressed, but politicians are neglecting it. All institutions of the state use people for their personal benefits. Although, history has proved that ambitious, not an increased number population, is required for change.
