

(1)

Real development should transform people's lives, not just economic statistics.

Outline

(1) Introduction:

(a) The high economic statistics do not consider the real development:

(b) The real development enhanced the living standard of the people:

Thesis statement: The real development eliminate the poverty, transform people's lives by giving political awareness and providing good health facilities, It is not just high economic statistics.

(2) Deconstruction the term real development:

Real development mean equal share of people in economic resources:

(3) Why high economic statistics do not justify the real development:

(a) High economic statistic does not mean the end of poverty in the country:

(b) High economic statistics does not eradicate the inequality in the society:

(c) High economic statistics concentrate the economic resources in few hands:

(4) How real development should transform peoples lives, not just economic statistics:

(a) The real development eliminate poverty in the country:

(b) The real development transform peoples lives by enhancing the living standard of people:

(c) The real development enhance the education of the people:

(d) The real development would make it easier for citizens to get better sufficient nutrition:

(e) The real development means people have good health facilities:

(f) The real development transform peoples lives by providing equal opportunities:

(g) The real development means people secure from climate change effects:

(h) The real development enhance industrialization which provide job opportunities to people:

(i) The real development involve the gender equality:

(j) The real development transform peoples lives by giving political awareness:

(k) The real development ensure rule of law, justice and accountability:

(5) Conclusion:

★ End ★

(1)

Does economic aid help to achieve economic sustainability.

Outline

(1) Introduction:

(a) Economic sustainability achieved by good economic policies rather than economic aid:

(b) Economic aid do not helpful for long term economic sustainability:

(c) Thesis Statement: Economic aid do not helpful in achieving economic sustainability because it could not eliminate the poverty, aid do not fix the trade deficit problem for long run and foreign aid promote aid dependent economy.

(2) How the economic aid does not help to achieve economic sustainability:

(a) The economic aid do not eliminate poverty in the country:

(b) The economic aid do not fix the long term economic problems like current account deficit:

(c) The economic aid do not eliminate the hunger and food insecurity in the country:

(d) The economic aid do not fix the structural problems of the economy:

(e) The economic aid do not provide the maximum capacity for good health infrastructure:

- (f) The economic aid do not enough to establish the industrial zones in the country;
- (g) The economic aids do not fix the trade deficit for long run;
- (h) The economic aid do not produces the economic long term sustainability;
- (i) The economic aid do not enough for technological advancement;
- (j) Economic aid do not ensure education opportunities for citizens;
- (k) Economic aids do not ensure the social justice in the society;

(3) How economic aid help to achieve economic sustainability:

- (a) Economic aid help to achieve economic sustainability by reducing the saving investment gap;
- (b) Economic aid help to achieve economic sustainability by increasing productivity and transforming modern technology;
- (c) Economic aid fix the current account deficit problem for short term;

(4) Conclusion: