

Is colonial mentality impeding Pakistan's progress?

Outline:

1. Introduction:

People who have been colonized, starting having inferiority complex from the nation who colonized them. This is colonial mentality.

1.1 Thesis statement: Yes, colonial mentality is impeding Pakistan's progress because it can be seen in every aspect of our life.

2. Body Paragraph:

2.1 Colonial mentality in our personal lives:

2.1.1 Western culture is best; a common perception of our society.

2.1.2 Hype of western products.

2.1.3 Inspired by their individualistic culture.

2.1.4 Adopting western values; considering our own values backward.

2.1.5 Appreciation for western dressing style, particularly by youth.

2.1.6 Food choices are influenced by west.

2.1.7 Beauty standards like fair complexion.

2.2 Colonial mentality in our social life:

2.2.1 Our We adopted their political system.

2.2.2 Our police system resembles that of colonial times police system.

2.2.3 Education system is inspired by them.

2.2.4 English language as a standard of intelligence.

2.2.4 Downfall of our national game hockey and popularity of cricket.

2.2.5 Rising materialism.

2.2.6 Effects on architecture e.g., modern homes like western style.

2.2.7 Family system e.g., increasing nuclear family systems in Pakistan.

2.3. Way Forward:

2.3.1 We should have systems that best suit our country; but not due to any external influence.

2.3.2 We should not devalue our own culture and traditions

2.3.3 We should learn English as a language only;

3. Conclusion: