

Comprehension - CSS 2004

1- What is difference between our life and life of an animal?

Ans: The difference between our life and the life of an animal is that we look in past and present and we have hopes and regrets in our life. Whereas the animals live in their present moment unlike us and these are distinguishing mental capabilities of ~~to~~ human and animals.

2- What is the result of human anxiety?

Ans: The result of human anxiety is that we live in fear. We care about ~~our~~ our life and the life of our children so that our future will be secured and safe.

3- How does the writer compares man to the butterflies and squirrels?

Ans: The writer compares the life of ^{man to} butterflies and squirrels because they unlike us enjoy each and every moment of life. If we live like butterflies are like butterflies and squirrels, we can enjoy every passing moment like ~~morning breakfast, walk through winter fog, mid-day~~ ^{sunshine} and peaceful evenings which can result in a more satisfied life.

4 How does anxiety about future disturb our daily life?

Ans: Anxiety about future makes us feel regret and we lose all moments of peace and contentment. Hence we pass our daily life in regret or thinking about the things we are unable to achieve in life.

5- How can we make our life tolerable? achieve

Ans: We can make our life tolerable by learning how to get rid of obsessions with passage of time and how to stop comprehending about our future and live in the present moment. Only in this way, we will be able to make our life tolerable.

Answers should be 5-7 lines long.